

Zero Project Call for Nominations 2024 on Inclusive Education and Technology

The Zero Project calls for nominations on Inclusive Education and technology solutions from around the world. The short form is ZeroCall24. From Malaysia to Djibouti, Norway to Argentina, the Zero Project searches for solutions that reduce barriers for persons with disabilities. These solutions can be on all levels of society and from all sectors. Zero Project presents the most innovative solutions to an international audience at the United Nations in Vienna, Austria. The goal is to connect people and solutions for a world with zero barriers.

Can you prove your solutions impact? It is innovative? No matter the size, is it scalable?

Nominate by June 18th 2023 for #ZeroCall24

What solutions are we looking for?

- Inclusive Education solutions that allow persons with disabilities to access education across all ages: early childhood intervention, formal and non-formal education, vocational training, and education in emergency and disaster situations.
- Information and Communication Technology (short form is ICT) covers solutions like web accessibility, inclusive software, hardware, devices, and applications.
- We also encourage nominations from women with disabilities, and arts and culture solutions.
