

Log-Frame des Projekts

“Promotion of disability inclusive and disaster prepared communities in Nho Quan”

Persons with disabilities and their communities, especially poor ethnic minority women and children have improved knowledge, skills and resource to reduce their vulnerability and cope with negative impacts of disasters and climate change
Objectives	Indicators
Legal status and organizational capacity of persons with disabilities are recognized and strengthened	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Number of IDGs strengthened and maintained</li> <li>• Number of people are built capacity on planning and management skills, resource mobilization, Human Rights Based Approach, iDRR</li> <li>• Nho Quan DPO established</li> </ul>
iDRR framework is rolled out at commune and district level	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Number of persons with disabilities, women and children involved in mock drills of evacuation plan</li> <li>• Number of community-based DRR plan developed by Inclusive Development Groups and communities</li> <li>• Number of people (community members, policy makers, service providers, etc.) reached by the communication products/campaigns of the project</li> <li>• Number of persons with disabilities, women and children involved in mock drills at commune level</li> <li>• Number of document packages on iDRR for training, guidance</li> </ul>
Persons with disabilities are better prepared to cope with natural disaster and climate change issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Number of diversified livelihood models supported by the project</li> <li>• Number of persons with disabilities receive rehabilitation, legal and psychosocial support by the project</li> <li>• Number of persons with disabilities involved in piloted mock drills at school, health center and local authority's office</li> </ul>
iDRR framework is recognized and replicated by governments and civil society	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Number of iDRR forum for CSOs to exchange information and good practices on iDRR</li> <li>• Number of policy dialogues on iDRR organised at district, national level</li> <li>• Number of CSOs, local authorities, policy makers, service providers attend the dialogues</li> <li>• Number of ICT4D model of disability database established in Nho Quan</li> </ul>